The dam of this bull is a dark red cow of the Missie family, sired by Alauna Lord Collynie. Note that the sire and dam of this bull were both sired by 100% dehorners. Alauna Mandate has a thick, smooth covering of natural fleshing with good depth of body and a splendid Polled head. Individually, he has much to recommend him and this along with his fine breeding would indicate that he is of definite herd sire caliber.
